Korach

This week we learn about a Jewish Man called Korach. He was a cousin of Moshe and Aharon and from the Tribe of Levi. He was very jealous of Aharon who was the Kohen Gadol. HE wanted to be the Kohen Gadol! He thought that it wasn't fair!!!!

So, he went around and started gathering a lot of other people who thought the same way. They all came to Moshe and Aharon and said; "It isn't fair that both of you have such big jobs, Moshe is the leader and Aharon is the Kohen Gadol! Why not us? We want important jobs too! Do you think you are better than us?!"

So, Hashem said they will do a test to show who is worthy of being the Kohen Gadol. Everyone planted a stick in the ground and left it for the night. The next day, Aharon's stick had grown blossoms, flowers and almonds, which is a miracle! This proved to everyone that Aharon was chosen by Hashem, not Moshe.

The rebels also tried to bring their own Ketoret, but then the ground opened up, and swallowed all them! Another Miracle!
