Devarim

This week's Parsha is the first Parsha in the last book of the Torah.

Moshe begins talking about what is in the Torah to the whole of the Jewish people. They look back at all the things that had happened as well as all the laws and Mitzvas. Everything that happened from when the Jewish people left Egypt to Har Sinai. They also spoke about all the years they travelled in the desert until they finally reach Israel.

They discussed all the things that happened:

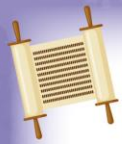

- ❖ Escaping Egypt.
- ❖ Sending spies to Israel.
- ❖ The Jewish people's complaints.
- ❖ Trips in the desert.
- ❖ Moshe created the judges so he can do other things and not be SUPER busy.

Moshes tells everyone that they should all observe the Torah and the Mitzvot when in Israel.

We end this week's Parsha with a message from Moshe to Yehoshua, the next leader of the Jewish people who will be the one to take the people into Israel; he tells him not to be afraid of the enemies because Hashem will fight for him.
