Nitzavim-Vayelech

This week's Parshas we learn about the important things for the Jewish people to learn from:

- Jewish Unity - all the Jewish people are connected as one.
- The Future Redemption - Moshe warns all of the people that they will go into exile for their sins. But he also told them they will be FREEEEEEEEEE!!!
- We Can Do It - The Torah has a lot of Mitzvas for us to do. Some are harder than others but we can always do them.

Also, in this week's Parsha we learn that Moshe is going to die and he prepares everything for then.

The Parsha ends with telling us that although there will be times when the Jews will turn away from Hashem, and Hashem will have to hide Himself from them, they or their children will always come back and the Torah will never really be forgotten.

If we do sins, Hashem will not be happy and will do not nice things. If we do Torah and Mitzvas, we will get many gifts and presents instead!!!

נִצְזָוִיִּם NITZAVIM

רָאֵה נִתְּתִי לְפָנֶיךָ הַיּוֹם, אֶת-הַחַיִּים וְאֶת-הַטּוֹב, וְאֶת-הַמּוֹת, וְאֶת-הָרָע.

Behold, I have set before you today life and good, and death and evil.
